

February 28 | Mumbai | ITC Grand Central (Ballroom)

9.30: Registration

9.45: What the Data Says: State of Private Equity in India

10.00: Private Equity - The Road Ahead

2017 turned out to be the biggest ever year for both Private Equity Investments & Exits. Does this signal the beginning of a sustainable resurgence of the PE segment? What are the potential pitfalls ahead? Hear from an eminent panel of industry practitioners on how they are reading the tea leaves.

11.30: Break for Coffee & Networking

12.00: Search for New Opportunities

Which are the sectors that are looking the most promising for investments in 2018 and beyond? Is the Fintech Opportunity for real? What the Opportunities in Distressed Investing?

A panel of experts will zoom in on these questions and more.

13.00: Break for Lunch & Networking

14:00: Focus on Venture Capital

Even as overall PE investments hit record highs in 2017, numbers in the VC segment slid for the second continuous year. What are the challenges facing this segment - from the perspective of both investors and entrepreneurs? What will the "New Normal" look like?

15.30: Break for Coffee & Networking

16.00: Closing Keynote / Fireside Chat